FREEHOLDER DIRECTOR

A Note from Cassandra "Sandi" Lazzara

On behalf of the Passaic County Board of Chosen Freeholders and the Passaic County Departments of Parks & Recreation and Cultural & Historic Affairs, I'm honored to present the 2020 Passaic County Parks Guide.

This visual catalog of community events, educational programming, and recreational opportunities has evolved into a Passaic County tradition. We strive to enhance the quality of life for Passaic County residents and are dedicated to attracting visitors from all around by upholding an incredibly high standard for our local parks and historic sites. It is our mission to provide a safe and healthy collection of offerings, while balancing the preservation of natural landscapes and keeping resident priorities at the top of mind.

It's also a great honor to share that we are listening to our community. We can't shape the character of Passaic County without you. Thank you for helping instill the pride that I am personally filled with in calling Passaic County home.

I also want to thank our partners, the Friends of Passaic County Parks, Inc., for continually supporting park improvements, maintenance, historic preservation projects, and programming.

This year, I challenge you to explore the more than 16,000 acres of Passaic County parkland, visit rich historic sites such as the Dey Mansion, partake in cultural activities at the Passaic County Arts Center, share your experiences with others, permit local facilities for events and photography, build connections in your community, establish a sense of place, and "See Passaic County."

As I reflect on my tenure as a Passaic County Freeholder, I'm more excited now than ever for our rich history and bright future.

Sincerely,

Cassandra "Sandi" Lazzara

The background of the page is a blurred photograph of a cityscape, likely taken from an elevated position. In the foreground, a metal railing with a dark post and a horizontal bar is visible, slightly out of focus. The city below is filled with buildings and greenery, with a prominent tall brick chimney on the left. The sky is bright blue with scattered white clouds.

Dey Mansion Washington's Headquarters

199 Totowa Road
Wayne, NJ 07470
deymansion.org

The Dey Mansion Washington's Headquarters is a historic house museum, curated to provide visitors with the experience of stepping back to the Colonial Era. The mansion served as General George Washington's headquarters during the summer and fall of 1780, and played a significant role in the American Revolution. Today, the Dey Mansion staff hosts tours, lectures, and special programs – showcasing life in Colonial America, the events and people of the American Revolution, and the value and need for historic preservation.

Hamilton House Museum

971 Valley Road
Clifton, NJ 07013
hamiltonhousemuseum.org

The Hamilton House Museum is a restored Dutch farmhouse, which features three time periods – Victorian, Federal, and colonial. This museum encourages visitors to imagine themselves living in the past as they step through the visualization of six rooms, each showcasing different periods of time and patterns of life. Visitors can tour the house as well as its gardens, spring house, and granary – exploring almost 200 years of rural American life. The site is owned by the City of Clifton, and operated by Passaic County's Department of Cultural & Historic Affairs.

PASSAIC COUNTY HISTORIC SITES

Lambert Castle "Bella Vista"

3 Valley Road
Paterson, NJ 07503

Built in 1892 by silk magnate Catholina Lambert, Lambert Castle is a late Victorian-era mansion. It was here that he displayed many of his prized European and American paintings. The museum's changing exhibits and furnishings reflect the local history of Passaic County and allow visitors to experience this historic house, with both period rooms and exhibits. The castle represents one of several rare examples of castellated residential architecture in America.

The castle is currently closed for renovations.

Lambert Tower

8 Mountain Avenue,
Woodland Park, NJ 07424

Situated within Garret Mountain Reservation, the 70-foot tall Lambert Tower was built in 1896 by silk mill entrepreneur Catholina Lambert. Along with Lambert Castle, the structure was built to be reminiscent of the castles in Great Britain where Catholina Lambert spent his childhood. After Lambert's death, the tower was open to visitors throughout the 1930s and was used by the United States' military as a lookout for enemy aircraft during World War II. Today, visitors are able to enjoy spectacular panoramic views from the top of the observation tower.
