Rules for Public Portion of a Telephonic Meeting

1. This is a telephonic/web-based public meeting and public comment is permitted only during the public comment portion of the meeting, just as if the meeting were being held in person.
2. The public line is now open as a two-way call and we can hear you. Please place your phones on mute except while speaking during public comment, so that any background noise (other household members, pets, rustling papers, etc.) does not disrupt the meeting or the ability of others to hear what is being said.
3. If you and someone next to you are on this call, please each go into separate areas to avoid interference.
4. Written comments made via text/email will not be considered except for individuals who advised the Clerk in advance that a disability that would preclude them from participating telephonically.
5. There cannot be dialogue between members of the public and the governing body during the public comment portion. This is so everyone will have an opportunity to speak, as back-and-and-forth discussion would be too disruptive to other members of the public who wish to be recognized. At the conclusion of public comment, the Governing Body will have an opportunity to respond to public comments/questions.
6. Members of the public who wish to speak during public comment will be recognized in alphabetical order by last name. For example, letter "A through F" will be announced. Anyone with last names beginning with those letters should state their name and ask to be heard.
7. When recognized by the Mayor or Chair, the individual wishing to speak must provide his/her name and address for the record.
8. When a member of the public is done commenting, he/she should then state that the comment is concluded for the record. The Mayor or Council President can then recognize the next member of the public;
9. After the entire alphabet is called, the public portion should be closed.
